

Dienste in Übersee is searching on behalf of partner organizations of Bread for the World:

Project co-operator (f/m/x) for the empowerment of children in Kyrgyzstan

Background and Partner Organization

Centre for the Protection of Children (CPC) protects children at risk from violence and supports their reintegration into the education system. Through day centres, CPC offers them a protected space, e.g. with healthy hot food, medical care and by strengthening their self-esteem as well as creative educational opportunities.

The child protection centre in Bishkek, for example, supports children to return to their families and schools. Outside Bishkek, CPC is also active and present for children in need. Families and experts such as representatives for violence prevention, teachers, etc. know CPC, for example, through its training programmes and its commitment to advocacy. CPC creates protection, development and future opportunities for vulnerable children.

If you have a passion for social justice for children and are interested in creating positive change in society, join the CPC team to mobilise resources and skills for strategic project funding and together shape a future where children can reach their full potential.

Place of work is Bishkek, headquarter of CPC.
